

Basic Search allows you to search for items by entering words. The system will search for the most suitable items based on the words you enter. The Basic Search option is available at the top of each of the pages.

Type the words into the search box.

As you type, a prediction list of words and phrases that match what you have typed will display. For example, when the word 'space' is entered, the following terms are suggested:

If one of the terms in the prediction list is more appropriate, click on the predicted term to search using that instead. Otherwise, click the  button to search for the term you typed.

The results screen will be displayed showing the items that match your search.

The screenshot shows a search results page for the term 'space'. At the top, there is a search bar with 'space' entered and a search button. Below the search bar, there are navigation arrows and a dropdown menu showing '1-20 of 1276 results best matching space'. To the right, there are options for 'Browse', 'Advanced search', 'Sort by Relevance', and view toggles for 'List' and 'Tile'. A left sidebar contains filters for 'Search within results', 'Show previous results', 'Available items only', 'Include digital items', 'Include attachments', and various metadata fields like Author, Branch, Collection, etc. The main area displays a grid of book covers. Callouts point to various elements: 'Search again to filter these results' points to the search bar; 'Change display order' points to the 'Sort by' dropdown; 'Filter these results by using any of these terms. Click on the plus symbol to expand each term.' points to the filter sidebar; 'Click on book cover to show more details' points to a book cover; and 'Add items to your resource list...' points to a shopping cart icon on the right.

Filter these results by using any of these terms. Click on the plus symbol to expand each term.

Click on book cover to show more details

From this screen you can:

- Filter the search results using terms such as author, publication date, item type etc.
- Change the order of results.
- View the results as a list instead of tiles.
- Drag items into a resource list N.B. Dragging items your resource list does not constitute a reservation, please request items using our online request form or by phone.

Clicking on a thumbnail image or the title of the book will show you more details about the book you have selected.
